

Certificate Examination for Business Correspondents

[for SCBs (including RRBs), SFBs excluding the Payments Banks]

Rules & Syllabus 2024

INTRODUCTION

In order to ensure financial inclusion, several initiatives have been taken by the Government of India and Reserve Bank of India. Business Correspondents (BCs) play an important role in achieving financial inclusion. The BCs act as a bridge between Bank branches and the people in the area. A BC is the first point of contact and the front face of the bank branch to the people. In order to enable the BCs to be more effective, they need to be imparted the desired level of knowledge. In this context, the certificate examination of IIBF for the BC's has the following objective

OBJECTIVE:

This course is aimed at providing the knowledge inputs and skills set to BCs. The structure of the course is, therefore to provide basic knowledge in banking operations and help the BCs in developing an overall understanding of the subject.

SYLLABUS:

RBI has designated IIBF as the sole certifying agency for the banks of SCBs (including RRBs), SFBs excluding the Payments Banks. In consultation with RBI, the syllabus for the BC certification has been revised. The revised syllabus for the examination is indicated in Annexure- I

STUDY MATERIAL/ COURSEWARE

The Institute has developed a courseware to cover the syllabus. The Institute has published a book titled 'Inclusive Banking Thru Business Correspondents' covering the syllabus in English, Hindi, Marathi, Tamil, Oriya, Telugu, Bengali, Assamese and Malayalam to facilitate study which is available at outlets/ distributors of M/s. Taxmann Publication Pvt. Ltd. For more details, visit Institute's web site. Candidates are advised to make full use of the same.

CUT-OFF DATE OF GUIDELINES/IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS FOR EXAMINATIONS

The Institute has a practice of asking questions in each exam about the recent developments/ guidelines issued by the regulator(s) in order to test if the candidates keep themselves abreast of the current developments. However, there could be changes in the developments/ guidelines from the date the question papers are prepared and the dates of the actual examinations.

In order to address these issues effectively, it has been decided that:

- (i) In respect of the examinations to be conducted by the Institute for the period March to August of a calendar year, instructions/ guidelines issued by the regulator(s) and important developments in banking and finance up to 31st December will only be considered for the purpose of inclusion in the question papers".
- (ii) In respect of the examinations to be conducted by the Institute for the period September to February of a calendar year, instructions/ guidelines issued by the regulator(s) and important developments in banking and finance up to 30th June will only be considered for the purpose of inclusion in the question papers.

The table given below further clarifies the situation.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE FULFILLED BY BANKS UNDER THE “HYBRID MODEL” FOR CONDUCT OF BC/BF EXAMINATION BY IIBF – OPERATIONAL MODALITIES

Under the “Hybrid Model”, while the examination paper and certification thereof will be of IIBF, the logistical arrangements for ensuring a smooth and fair examination shall be the responsibility of the individual banks. For this, IIBF will offer internet-based test engine which can be accessed from anywhere in the country, provided an internet connection with adequate speed is available. The banks will identify their centres and the BCs of the banks concerned will appear at such designated bank centres.

Minimum Technical Specifications to be fulfilled by banks.

The minimum technical specifications of the computer nodes, internet connection and ports which will have to be fulfilled by the individual banks at each centre under the hybrid model should be as under:

- Microsoft Windows 7 Service Pack 2 and above as the operating system.
- Latest updated Chrome/Firefox Browser.
- Mouse facility.
- Minimum Bandwidth Required: 1-2 MBPS (for internet connection).
- Opening required ports to access the server. Details of ports will be shared with the banks.

Procedure for registration of candidates:

- Individual banks, in co-ordination with IIBF, have to finalise the date of examination, time of examination, registration dates and centre for conduct of examination.
- Individual banks have to make bulk registration of candidates. Necessary login credentials and the URL will be shared by IIBF to the banks. Banks have to nominate a single point of contact (SPOC) for the purpose.
- Individual banks to make payment of examination fees through RTGS/NEFT, within a period of 2 days from the close of registration.
- IIBF, after getting the payment, will email the soft copy of the admit letter to individual candidates. The soft copy of the admit letter will also be sent to the SPOC, who can distribute the same, in case of need.

Conduct of Examination:

- Banks will identify dedicated examination centers for conduct of exam.
- One day before the examination date, individual banks have to check their systems and ensure everything is working properly for the smooth conduct of examination. They have to co-ordinate with representative of IIBF's testing agency. The name of the representative, email id and contact number will be shared by IIBF with the bank.
- Candidates should report to the Examination Venue half an hour before the examination start time.
- The gate closing time should be 15 minutes before the exam start time.
- No candidate should be allowed to enter the exam hall after the gate closing time.
- No other person other than the candidates and the centre authorities be present/allowed in the examination centre during the conduct of the examination i.e. the examination centre should be exclusively reserved for the purpose of conducting the examination only.
- Supervisors have to ensure that candidates do not use mobile phones, books, discuss with other candidates, copying of questions, browse other applications during the examination. Facility of browsing the internet during the examination should be disabled.

- Examination conducting authorities may do the frisking of candidates before entry to the examination hall/venue, to ensure that candidates do not carry items like mobile phone, any electronic/smart gadget, and such other items which are not allowed in the examination hall.
- Candidates must produce a printed copy of the admit letter along with a Membership identity card or any other valid photo ID card in original (Aadhaar card/Employer's card/PAN Card/Driving License/Election voter's card/Passport, etc.) at the examination venue/centre. In the absence of a printed copy of the Admit Letter and Photo Identity Card, candidates be denied permission to write the examination.
- The supervisor should take attendance of the candidates and ensure that the present candidates sign the attendance sheet. The copies of the attendance sheet should be preserved and submitted to IIBF.
- Candidates will be allowed to use battery operated portable calculator in the examination. The calculator can be of any type up to 8 functions i.e. (Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, Division, Percentage, Sq.-root, Tax+ and Tax -). Scientific calculators are not allowed.
- Attempting to use any other type of calculator not complying with the specified functions or having more features will be considered as adoption of unfair means.
- Supervision of the examination will be the sole responsibility of the individual banks and they have to ensure that no unfair practices are adopted during the examination.
- Candidates found resorting to unfair means should be booked and the format for recording unfair conduct should be duly filled in and signed by the supervisor & the candidate. The same should be submitted to IIBF after the completion of the examination.
- The examination centres should be under CCTV surveillance. The CCTV recording of the examination should be provided to IIBF.
- The centre head of the individual bank has to certify to IIBF that proper supervision was done during the examination, detailing out the list of candidates who had appeared for the examination, name of the supervisors, candidates booked for resorting to unfair means etc.
- Only after getting the above confirmation, result of the candidates will be declared.

General:

- No refund or adjustment of examination fees can be made, in case candidates remain absent for the examination.
- Only E- Certificates will be sent to the successful candidates.
