One-day Seminar on “Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code 2016”

During its 90 years of service, IIBF has emerged as a premier institute in banking and finance education. Considering the emerging requirements of the bankers in the ever changing dynamic environment, IIBF has been providing training programmes in selected areas to banking and finance professionals through its Leadership & Professional Development Centers at Mumbai, Chennai and Kolkata.

About the Programme:

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code is an important legislation predominantly for the lenders and service providers. Given its ambitious objectives and impact, Banks are in the process of familiarizing more and more officers about the code, its latest amendments, the judgements delivered by various benches, appellate tribunal and Supreme Court. It is envisaged that effective application of the provisions of new law will help Banks and Financial Institutions to resolve critical NPAs in corporate accounts. With this objective, IIBF has organized a one-day seminar at Kolkata on Friday, 8th March, 2019. The Coverage is as under:

- IBC – an overview, IBC rules and procedures
- Corporate Insolvency Resolution Procedure
- Roles and responsibilities of IP, Implementations steps
- Role and responsibility of lenders to speed up the CIRP
- Judicial process with in Bankruptcy proceedings, latest judgements
- Operational issues and challenges - sharing of experiences

Methodology: The programme will be highly interactive based on lecture sessions, case discussion and sharing of experiences by industry experts and practising professionals

Target group: Officers/Managers in at NPA Management verticals at Corporate office, Asset Recovery Branches, Law officers and Bank trainers

Duration: One day, on Friday, 08.03.2019 from 9.30 to 17.30 Hrs

Fees: Rs. 3,000 plus GST @18% (Fees may be remitted to IIBF Bank account as shown in the Nomination form)
