

CERTIFICATE COURSE IN ETHICS IN BANKING (in E-Learning Mode) Rules & Syllabus 2024

SELF-PACED E-LEARNING COURSE:

Development of self-paced e-learning is an attempt by IIBF to provide a more conducive learning environment to professionals employed in the banking and finance sectors.

Under this approach, which harnesses technology to an optimal extent, a candidate will have the flexibility to register for the exam 'Ethics in Banking', learn at his/ her own pace, and finally take an examination from his/ her own place.

EXAMINATION OBJECTIVE:

The principles of Ethics in Banking are envisioned to be applied by bankers and finance professionals when dealing with each other or with their customers, shareholders, employees and with other organizations for ensuring sustainability of the existing reputation and reliability of the banking profession to the public and to protect and maintain stability, consistency and confidence in the banking sector. It is therefore important that banking and finance professionals of today and tomorrow imbibe in themselves the evolving practices of good corporate governance and ethical business practices on a continual basis.

SELF-PACED E-LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

The Self-Paced E-learning Management System will host a variety of interactive content to aid wholesome learning. Candidates can learn at their own pace and also measure the learnings imbibed by attempting questions under 'Check Your Progress' which will appear at the end of every unit. There will be three MCQs at the end of every unit and the time available to answer these questions will be 5 minutes. Candidates will not be allowed to go to the subsequent unit unless they have attempted the questions under 'Check Your Progress'. Feedback about each question will be provided. No marks have been assigned to these questions.

Once a candidate completes all the units in the e-learning, there will be a final evaluation consisting of around 80-100 questions (MCQs) for 90 minutes. On observing the minimum marks required to pass, a certificate will be issued to the successful candidate.

The self-paced e-learning on the subject has been prepared keeping the syllabus prescribed in mind. However, candidates should not solely depend on the e-learning. Rather, they are advised to visit the websites of organizations like RBI, SEBI, BIS, IRDAI, FEDAI etc. besides going through other books & publications covering the subject/ exam concerned etc. Questions based on current developments relating to the subject/ exam may also be asked.

CUT-OFF DATE OF GUIDELINES/ IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS

The Institute has a practice of asking questions in each exam about the recent developments/ guidelines issued by the regulator(s) in order to test if the candidates keep themselves abreast of the current developments. However, there could be changes in the developments/ guidelines from the date the question papers are prepared and the dates of the actual examinations.

In order to address these issues effectively, it has been decided that:

- (i) In respect of the examinations to be conducted by the Institute for the period March to August of a calendar year, instructions/ guidelines issued by the regulator(s) and important developments in banking and finance up to 31st December will only be considered for the purpose of inclusion in the question papers".
- (ii) In respect of the examinations to be conducted by the Institute for the period September to February of a calendar year, instructions/ guidelines issued by the regulator(s) and important developments in banking and finance up to 30th June will only be considered for the purpose of inclusion in the question papers.

The table given below further clarifies the situation.

Particulars Developments for Examination/s	Cut-off Date of Guidelines/ Important Developments for Examination/s
For the examinations to be conducted by the Institute for the period March 2024 to August 2024	31st December 2023
For the examinations to be conducted by the Institute for the period September 2024 to February 2025	30th June 2024
